

Encouragement for Deployed Military

Invite local veterans to talk about what life was like when they were deployed and how important it was to receive letters and drawings from home. Encourage children to think about how they can support those who are serving their country and are away from home.

HOW TO

1. Visit www.forgottensoldiers.org for guidelines on writing letters and making artwork.
2. Kids can color and write from templates or draw/write free-hand individually or in groups.
3. Mail letters to Forgotten Soldiers for delivery to deployed service members or work with a local organization that provides similar services.

ITEMS NEEDED

1. Paper
2. Markers, Crayons, Pens, Pencils
3. Stickers, etc. but NO glitter