

Dear Friend,

Today you have the opportunity to support our children and teens at a time when they need it most by joining the many hearts and hands dedicated to serving their needs today and all year long.

Read the story of one transformed child:

Jamal was a school bully. He seemed disorganized, attention-seeking, disruptive, and disrespectful to his peers and teachers. Then, Jamal began attending the KM365 Kindness Club after school, where he explored things like gratitude, compassion, self-awareness, and self-navigation. And after only a year, a more mindful Jamal began showing kindness toward himself and others. He was respectful, participating in meetings and collaborating on projects. Jamal even shared with us that his younger sister had cancer. Through KM365, Jamal found a safe space and constructive tools to navigate challenges in his life. This was the beginning of a transformation for Jamal, and by the end of the year, he was opening doors for friends, high-fiving teachers, and getting better grades. Thanks to KM365, Jamal was no longer a bully – he was kind.

By contributing $125 to KM365, you can support a child just like Jamal for one year. Your support will ensure that more children and teens can experience a transformation like Jamal's. We've set a goal to raise $125K by December 31st. With your help, just imagine how many kids KM365 can help over the next year.
