

RANDOM ACTS OF KINDNESS WEEK

How do we change the world? With one small act of kindness at a time. Join Kindness Matters 365 (KM365) in celebrating Random Acts of Kindness (RAK) Week this February! Observed annually worldwide, this weeklong initiative that includes Random Acts of Kindness Day® on Feb. 17th celebrates the immense impact that can be made simply by spreading more kindness. Throughout the week and on RAK Day, people are encouraged to perform Random Acts of Kindness, ranging from complimenting someone to donating to a favorite charity. The idea is to make the world better by spreading positivity and kindness and lifting others. Here's a list of 20 simple yet impactful ways you can start spreading kindness today.

- 4. Hold the Door: Open doors for others or hold the elevator for someone rushing in.
